AgArt Exhibition

'V for Victory'
A.J. Casson, Oil on Canvas

The walls of the Ontario AgriCentre are alive with the AgArt Exhibition and we invite you to come by for a viewing.

AgArt Exhibition
Public spaces on all three floors
Ontario AgriCentre
100 Stone Road West
Open Monday to Friday during business hours

Developed to showcase agricultural and rural life art, the AgArt Exhibition features:

- Over 100 pieces of original art – 50% are for sale
- Unique opportunity to view an original Group of Seven painting by A.J. Casson
- Several works from the University of Guelph and Royal Bank of Canada collections
- Portraits from the Canadian Agricultural Hall of Fame and the Ontario Agricultural Hall of Fame
- Works by local artists and recognized Canadian artists

Please drop by to view the growing collection of work. There is art for all tastes and budgets for home and corporate needs.

For more information about purchasing, donating or loaning art through the AgArt Exhibition, contact agart@ontarioagricentre.ca

ONTARIO AGRICentre™ Ltd.